NFA (Reciprocity, NAB Exam not required)$ 620.00

We now accept MasterCard, Visa and Discover. For payment by Credit Card, complete and attach a Credit Card Authorization Form (See Forms – Other).

All fees are non-refundable.

The failure to complete all required blanks and/or include required documentation will delay the processing of your application or it could be returned or rejected. Background Clearance is required before the issuance of a license.

Reciprocity:

If you are currently licensed in another state and requesting reciprocity, the following is required:

1. Applicant must have passed the National NAB Nursing Facility Administrator's Exam.
2. Applicant must have completed 1,000 hours of AIT with a Preceptor that has been a licensed Nursing Facility for a minimum of two (2) years prior the start of your AIT program.
3. Applicant must request License Verification from the state agency where the applicant is currently licensed. A License Verification Form is available on this site.
4. Applicant must complete a Rules and Regulations Class.

Nursing Facility Administrator National NAB Exam:

The fee for the exam paid to NAB must be charged to your credit card or bank debit card when you apply online. This is not a part of the application fee. If you should fail the examination the first time, you may retake the examination one additional time within a year of the initial test date by submitting your request in writing to the Board with a retesting fee of $25.00. NAB will charge a fee for retesting.

BELTCA RETAINS FINAL AUTHORITY TO APPROVE OR DENY AN APPLICATION.

ALL APPLICATIONS FOR LICENSURE MUST BE COMPLETED WITHIN ONE (1) YEAR OF THE ORIGINAL DATE OF SUBMITTAL. APPLICATIONS NOT COMPLETED WITHIN ONE (1) YEAR WILL BE CONSIDERED VOID.
